

The Holy Eucharist was celebrated yesterday morning at St. Peter's Church by Canon A. T. Tucker on the 60th anniversary of his ordination as a priest. His son, L. N. Tucker, was the server at the St. Mark's Day ceremony. Canon retired about two years ago from the rectorship of St. George's Parish, a position he had held since 1916, and this year as canon of the Bermuda Cathedral, becoming canon emeritus.
